Re: Confirmation that your certificate validity has been extended for a period of up to six months from the expiry date.

I am writing regarding your request for your existing certificate to be extended, due to the current impact of COVID-19 on audit activities.

Based on the current restrictions on travel and social distancing requirements, we have agreed that your certificate validity can be extended for an initial period of six months. A revised certificate will not be issued to reflect this – this letter forms an addendum to the certificate identified below for the duration of the extension period. You can present this letter to your customers or other third parties to provide them with evidence of the validity of your approval.

During the period of extension, your company is accepted to continue producing products under the Lloyd's Register scope of approval, and subject to compliance with related Rules and survey requirements.

However, as soon as the effects of COVID-19 have subsided, it will be necessary to undertake a certificate renewal assessment as soon as possible. If the recertification is successfully completed during the six-month extension period, an updated certificate will be issued.

The date of issuance of the new certificate will be the date of completion of our technical review, which will be conducted after the completion of the renewal audit. The expiry date will be three years from the expiry date of the current certificate.

If performing an audit remains impossible after the end of the initial extension period, further guidance will be provided.
